Re: 202601091 - Brian Carr - George Monroe Padis

Prior Complaint Case #202600089

Dear Brian Carr:

The Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar of Texas has received your second or multiple filing filed against the above-named lawyer. Our records indicate that your previously filed grievance against this lawyer was classified and dismissed as an Inquiry.

After examining your second or multiple filing, we have determined that it does not provide new or additional evidence which would demonstrate misconduct on the part of the lawyer. Therefore, your second or multiple filing has been classified as an Inquiry and dismissed.

You may appeal our determination to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. If you wish to do so, then you must use the enclosed form and submit it directly to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals. You have thirty (30) days from your receipt of this letter to appeal this determination. If the Board of Disciplinary Appeals affirms the dismissal on appeal, you will be so notified and may within twenty days amend the grievance one time only with the Office the Chief Disciplinary Counsel by providing new or additional evidence.

In compliance with the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel maintains confidentiality throughout the grievance process. If you have any questions about the dismissal of your grievance, I can be reached at (877) 953-5535.

P. O. Box 12487, Austin, TX 78711, (512) 427-1350, (877) 953-5535, fax: (512) 427-4253
